

Consensus Awards:

"The Consensus Software Awards are recognised as the preeminent awards for software developers across Australia and New Zealand. Judging of the 2010 Awards was conducted by 27 industry experts who judged each product on its own merits and conferred as many awards as they wish. Our judges expressed great satisfaction with not only the quality of the products, but also the professionalism of each presenting finalist", Enterprise Clarity Pty Limited was a worthy nominee in the 2010 Awards receiving a HIGHLY COMMENDED 2010 Consensus Software Awards. See winners by clicking of the following link;

AiiA Awards:

The iAwards is Australia's premier technology innovation awards program.

For 16 years the Australian Information Industry Association (AIIA) has hosted the iAwards as the Australian member of the Asia-Pacific ICT Alliance Awards (APICTA), to deliver the only truly international awards program to the national technology community.

The 2010 iAwards include honours in 18 different categories – including start-ups, sustainability, export, education, media, healthcare and security. The iAwards puts your business in front of the industry sectors that will lead Australia into the global digital economy. <http://www.iawards.com.au>
